Bellinggen Readers and Writers Festival Author Talks Thursday, June 6th, 2024

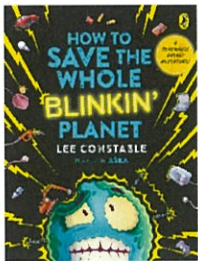

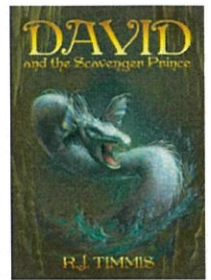

As part of the Bellinggen Readers and Writers Festival, our school will have two children's authors visiting to present author talks on Thursday, June 6th, 2024. The purpose of this program is to excite, inspire and engage students in the world of books, developing their love of reading and writing by having direct contact with quality Australian writers. There is a $6.00 cost associated with attending the author talk.

Our visiting authors are:

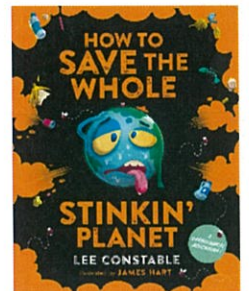

Stage 1 and 2- Rebecca Timmis

Rebecca Timmis is the creator of funny, action-packed books for kids, including the MerTales, Jawsome and David series and many others. She is an experienced school session presenter.

Stages 2 and 3: Lee Constable

Lee Constable is an experienced science communicator and sustainability advocate. She has published two books – How to Save the Whole Stinkin' Planet and How to Save the Whole Blinkin' Planet. Lee was the host of Scope, Network Ten's science and tech show for kids.

This event has the approval of the principal.
